DIFFERENCE (CFDS)
SHARE CFDS

INTRODUCTION

Fairmarkets Trading Pty Ltd (referred to as Fairmarkets, us, our or we) operates a contracts for difference (CFDs) business. Fairmarkets is a product issuer and issues CFDs to clients, including retail clients. The design and distribution obligations set out in Part 7.8A of the Corporations Act 2001 (DD Obligations) apply to the issuance and distribution of CFDs to retail clients (Consumers) from 5 October 2021.

We are authorised and regulated by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC), with licence number 424122 and registered office located at Level 26, 1 Bligh Street, Sydney NSW 2000.

The DD Obligations aim to assist Consumers to obtain appropriate financial products by requiring product issuers and distributors to have a consumer-centric approach to the design and distribution of financial products.

The purpose of this target market determination (TMD) is to describe the target market of Consumers for our CFDs, and to address the DD Obligations that apply to TMDs.

If you are a retail client, you should also refer to the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) before deciding whether to acquire or continue to hold the relevant product. You can get a copy of the relevant PDS from our website.

You should not base any decision to trade on the contents of this TMD, and this document is not suitable for the purpose of deciding whether to open a CFDs trading account or trade in CFDs.

Financial Products Issued by Us

CFDs are complex and leveraged financial products, which are traded over-the-counter (OTC) and not through a regulated market. CFDs are agreements to exchange the difference in the value of a particular underlying asset. This allows Consumers to speculate on rising or falling prices of an underlying asset.

We issue CFDs in respect of the following underlying assets:

- Currency Pairs;
- Commodities, including precious metals;
- Shares;
- Indices, including stock market indices; and

This TMD has been prepared specifically in relation to our Index CFDs. We have issued separate TMDs in respect of each of our other CFD offerings.

The Target Market

The target market for our CFDs includes the following classes of Consumers:

Consumers who satisfy each of the following criteria:

- Consumers above the age of 18 and below the age of 70;
- Consumers who have the requisite knowledge for the purposes of trading in CFDs;
- Consumers who can accept losses that can be as great as the sum of their deposits;
- Consumers who have high investment risk appetites;
- Consumers where the issuance of CFDs is not restricted or prohibited in the country of residence.

For those Consumers who satisfy the above criteria

Those Consumers who satisfy the above criteria and wish to trade CFDs for investment purposes, including for one or more of the following purposes:

- speculative trading;
 - hedging (including hedging exposure to underlying assets and hedging positions taken in relation to other CFDs); and
 - gaining exposure to price movements of the underlying assets being shares - including where exposure to such underlying assets may not be otherwise as readily available, or where such exposure is required at short notice,
- are in the target market for Fairmarkets' CFDs.

Target Market – Criteria, Scope and Key Attributes

Further details regarding Fairmarkets' target market of Customers for Crypto CFDs trading is set out below.

Distribution Conditions

Our CFDs are distributed by:

- Fairmarkets; and
- various third parties are also involved in the distribution of our CFDs, including various introducing brokers and referrers (each a Distributor, and together, the Distributors).

We will take reasonable steps to ensure that both we and any Distributors, distribute the financial product to the identified target market.

To ensure that the distribution strategy is consistent with the identified target market, we have several processes in place to distinguish and identify that the Consumers who are potential clients fall within the identified target market.

Fairmarkets will use above mentioned processes to check whether potential clients fall within the identified target market during the onboarding process, before approving them and allowing them to trade CFDs on the trading platform. Fairmarkets will provide appropriate training.

We will also take reasonable steps to ensure that our marketing strategy and the marketing strategy of Distributors is targeting potential clients who fall within the identified target market. No Distributor may release marketing materials without obtaining our prior written consent.

Monitoring and Reviewing the TMD

Periodic reviews

We will perform periodic reviews of this TMD.

The first review of this TMD will occur on 3 October 2023.

Subsequent reviews of the TMD will occur on or before each anniversary of the first review date.

Review triggers – additional reviews

We will also review the TMD where the following review triggers occur:

- where there are significant dealings (issuing of CFDs) in Fairmarkets' CFDs, which are not consistent with the target market or this TMD. This trigger occurs where significant distribution is occurring outside the target market, and does not refer to any one particular dealing in CFDs;
- where a Distributor has reported a significant number of complaints or noted any relevant complaint trends;
- where we have received a significant number of complaints or noted any relevant complaints trends; and
- where we have detected significant issues with the distribution of our CFDs through our monitoring of our own day-to-day activities, or the monitoring and supervision of our Distributors.

Distributors – information collecting and reporting requirements

As part of the process of monitoring and reviewing the TMD to determine whether it is still appropriate, each Distributor must provide the following to us on a quarterly basis, within 10 business days of the end of each calendar quarter – 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December, each year:

- complaints data – information about the complaints received, including the number of complaints received;
- Consumer feedback (including regarding performance of the product);

- requests for information that the Distributor has received from clients;
- percentage of sales to clients who are not in the target market;
- volume of sales; and
- web analytics.

No party may engage in the distribution of our CFDs unless they have entered into an Agreement with us. We reserve the right to amend the TMD at any time if such amendment is needed as a result of any changes to the law or regulations, regulatory guidance, or for any reason we consider as a proper reason to amend the TMD.
